Women's New Life Center's Annual Fais Do Do

Honoring David and Kim Lukinovich

The 2013 Fais Do Do honors David and Kim Lukinovich. David and Kim live their faith by example in their roles as parents, lay leaders and community volunteers. Both were raised in devout and loving Catholic families and David especially counts the influence of his cousin Bonnie Hardey and her husband Dr. Kim Hardey, as having a profound effect on a resurgence of his faith. During the early years of their marriage, they both experienced Catholic ministries; however, it was Kim's entrance into the Charismatic renewal that began their deeper and more exciting journey into the Catholic faith. Married for 27 years, David and Kim have been active in Legatus in New Orleans and Baton Rouge, have attended several national Legatus summits, and participate in Legatus Forums. Together, they have helped with the Southern Regional Charismatic Conference, and Closer Walk Ministries, a television evangelization ministry. David and Kim are long-time supporters of WNLC, with David serving as a board member for 6 years. David's career as an estate tax lawyer provides a mission field for him as a lay evangelist to his clients, and Kim spends her time counseling women privately on faith and life issues.

WNLC salutes David and Kim Lukinovich as they continue to live their faith day by day.

May God bless you,
